COLONEL MICHAEL H. DUBOIS

Colonel Michael H. DuBois currently serves as the Director, Emergency Services Training for the Southwest Region, Civil Air Patrol, JRB Carswell, Texas, a federally chartered nonprofit corporation and the civilian auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, headquartered at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. He served

Col. DuBois joined CAP in 1992, most recently serving as the Louisiana Wing's emergency services training officer and director of professional development. The colonel also directed the wing's Emergency Services and Professional Development Training Academy. Prior to joining the Louisiana Wing, Col. DuBois served in numerous positions in the Texas Wing, where he held posts at the wing, group and squadron levels, including assistant wing director of operations.

Having completed all levels of the CAP Senior Training Program, Col. DuBois has received the Garber, Loening, Yeager and Wilson awards. He also has earned numerous CAP honors, including the National Commander's Commendation, Southwest Region Commander's Commendation, Region Commander's Award of Excellence and Meritorious Service Award.

A strong advocate of professional development, Col. DuBois has completed the Region and Wing Commanders' Course and National Staff College. He also is a fully qualified CAP aircrew member, with nearly 500 hours flown as a mission pilot, over 180 hours aloft as a mission observer and dozens of hours as a mission scanner.

Col. DuBois is a 1971 graduate of Southeastern Louisiana University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agriculture. Upon graduation, he was commissioned in the U.S. Air Force. After earning his pilot wings, he was transferred to the 122nd Fighter Squadron in the Louisiana Air National Guard, flying the F100 Super Sabre. He left the Louisiana Air National Guard in 1975.

Colonel DuBois resides in Houston, Texas.
